

BAY OF BENGAL NEWS

Vol. IV Nos. 17-18 Sep - Dec 2008

ISSN 0971 3077

The Journal of the Bay of Bengal Programme
Inter-Governmental Organisation

Integrating Safety at Sea with Fisheries Management

Bay of Bengal News examines the many dimensions of safety at sea, with facts, anecdotes and analyses, plus reports of consultations in Chennai and Rome. The main message: Governments should strengthen MCS, as part of their fisheries management regime. Expected outcomes: more reliable data, sounder laws, more knowledgeable fishers, firmer enforcement – and fewer accidents at sea.

Regional Consultation on Safety at Sea in Chennai, India 10

National Workshop on MCS in Marine Fisheries in India adopts a National Plan of Action 15

*Developing Guidelines for Safety at Sea: Expert Consultation
in Rome Provides Guidance* 29

Impacts of Climate Change on Coastal and Marine Fisheries Resources in Bangladesh 34

